On Wednesday night, January 13, the Adult Bible Study will begin a study of the book of Revelation by Adrian Rogers entitled "The Triumph of the Lamb." Adrian Rogers served three terms as president of the Southern Baptist Convention. Under his pastoral leadership, Bellevue Baptist Church in Memphis, Tennessee, grew from 9,000 members in 1972 to more than 29,000 at his retirement in 2005. Dr. Rogers was the founder and Bible teacher of Love Worth Finding, an internationally syndicated television and radio ministry. Dr. Rogers was active in national leadership and personally consulted and prayed with five presidents of the United States. Dr. Rogers preached overseas crusades in Taiwan, South Korea, Israel, Russia, Romania, and in Central and South America. Even though the Lord called him home in 2005, his messages of "Come To Jesus" are still reaching around the world.

PRAYER FOCUS

This was written on the Baptist Press website: "January is a distinctive month of prayer across the Southern Baptist Convention...This year's theme is "In All Things Pray," drawn from the familiar 2 Chronicles 7:14 passage...For church-wide times of prayer, SBC LIFE listed a suggestion for each of the five Sundays in January." This Sunday, January 3, the Prayer Focus is: "My Family. Select a family member who is unchurched or without Christ and pray that they would come to faith in Christ."
